The proposed sampling district was conservatively developed to encompass an area potentially vulnerable to MtBE contamination. No inferences should be drawn on the presence or absence of contamination from this map. Testing of well water is the only way to determine drinking water quality.