

MaryAnn,

It seems that the BMPS for wetlands have become "standards " throughout the document. That goes against what has traditionally been "BMP Guidelines". Refer to the previous BmPs . It looks like the NRCS "standards" for engineering have become the rule. I think that is erroneous. The Nutrient Management section and the Fence section are particularly onerous. All the "shall"s should be replaced by "should".

Erick 'Sawtelle, Lee, NH